THE FORGER GRAY'S LATEST SCHEME.

The following advertisement was published on last Friday: $5,000 Wanted—90 days, gilt-edge note, and $50,000 stock security; appointment with $3,000 a year to competent party. Address "Discount," Post Office box 1,491.

The experience of a person who answered the advertisement subsequently developed the fact that the advertiser was no other than W. E. Gray, the well-known forgor, whose unauthorized use of the names of Cornelius Vanderbilt and other prominent capstalists in connection with the United Globe Electric Light Company was exposed in The Tribune last December. Mr. Gray this time, however, appears without the first initial of his name and with a new stills to his company but, still employing the name

Light Company was exposed in THE TRIBUNE has December. Mr. Gray this time, however, appears without the first initial of his name and with a new title to his company, but still employing the name of Cornelius Vanderbilt to further his schemes. The name of the person who answered Gray's advertisement is withheld, but for convenience in telling the story he may be called Mr. Brown. He is a lawyer in Broadway and is highly connected in social and literary circles. He frequently secures investments for his clients, and, having the placing of some capital in his hands at aresent, he replied to the advertisement in the hope of making a desirable bargain. The response from the advertiser came from Edgar Gray, and on Monday Mr. Brown had a personal interview with Gray at No. 149 Broadway, rooms 8, 9 and 10.

Mr. Gray explained that he wanted to discount a note for $5,000 by the National Electric Light Company, secured by the company's stock. He offered the position of secretary of the company at $3,000 a year to the person who would discount the note. The company, he said, did not need any more subscriptions to its stock than had already been obtained. He showed Mr. Brown the articles of incorporation, among the corporators being himself (Gray), Cornelius Vanderbilt and Edmund L. Morse. Mr. Morse was said to be the inventor of the machines used by the company and to be a descendent of S. F. B. Morse, the inventor of the Morse has no descendents. At the appointed time yesterday Mr. Brown was at the National Company's office, and was introduced by Gray to a medium-sized man, wearing a rellowish pointed beard, who, Gray said, was Mr. Vanderoilt. On Mr. Brown's expressing surprise, and declaring that he had expected to see the vice-president of the New-York Central Railroad Company. Gray feigned astonishment, saying: "Why, I did not know that. This is a cousin of that gentleman."

The interview was abruptly terminated by Mr. Brown's reciting the conversation of the previous day and declaring that he thought the scheme was "a fraud and humbug." The post office box given in Gray's advertisement is the same as that formerly used by the fraudatent United Globe Company; the corporators, Carnelius Vanderbilt and E. L. Morse, were trustees of the Globe Company, and the E. Gray of the National is the same man as W. E. A POLICE CAPTAIN ON TRIAL.

A POLICE CAPTAIN ON TRIAL.

Police Captain Ryan, of the Twenty-first Precinct, was on trial betere Commistioner Mason yesterday, on a charge of assaulting with a cane without cause, Denois Kane, a top sixteen years old. Kane testified that he was playing in the street with several other boys, when Captain began to beat him about the head and back with a cane, without saying a word. He struck him twice on the head and several times across the back, and then said to him: "Take that and ge." Twe witnesses corroborated the boy's story of the beating, captain Kyan admitted that he had caned the boy, but he protested that the blows with he had influeted were very light, and that the cane was "a mere straw in weight." Two witnesses, one of whom was a policeman, were called by Captain Kyan to prove that the coys in Second-ave, had been complained of by citizens for making too much noise while at play. Captain Kyan also produced a letter, which he said had been sent to him through the mail. The writer of the letter onlered in Kanes a name to settle the case for $10. Kane said that he knew nothing about the letter and that he had not been willing at any time to settle the case for money. The letter was not accepted as evidence. Decision was reserved.

TIDING OVER AN EMERGENCY.

The proposition of Emigration Commissioner Tainter, approved by the Board on Tuesday, that, in view of the embarrassment of the Commission arising out of the tailure of the Legislature to appropriate money for the maintenance of the immigrant insutations, the paisons in the employ of the commission should be permitted to retain their positions by signing an agreement to waive all chains upon the found of the individual Commissioners for the payment of their salaries, and take the chainess of the Legislature making provisions for them, was ananimously agreed to yesterday. Not chances of the Legislature making provisions for them, was anominously agreed to yesterday. Not-withstanding this the employes know that Com-missioner Forrest will adhere to his offer to pay them their sataries in case or default by the Legis-lature. Commissioner manually esterday instructed Secretary Jackson that if any destitute German in-migrants were in absolute need, to give them relief and to draw upon him for the expense.

A RURNING BARK AT SEA.

The bark Europa, which arrived yesterday from Bremen, on Marca 26, in initiated 87° north, longitude 19° west, saw a bark of about 1,000 tons measurement on fire. The vessel had all sail set, but had been abandoned. A sinall boat belonging to the bark was picked up near ner, and a number of letters written in Norwegian were taken from it, the boat asso contained tood and water. The captain of the Europa said he could not find the vessel's name, but beneved her to be an East Indiaman, from the manner in which she was sheathed. The letters will be brought to the city to-day, when it is possible the name of the vessel may be discussed. The captain believes the crew was rescued by a vessel which he saw about seven miles from the burning bark.

MISS ACKERMAN'S APPEAL NOT UPHELD.

At the meeting of the Board of Education, yester-day afternoon, a lively discussion took place in regard to the case of Miss Eugenia S. Ackerman, who was recently dismissed from Grammar School No. 29 by the trustees of the First Ward because there were too many teachers. Miss Ackerman, it was claimed, was a regular teacher, and therefore should not have been dismissed, especially when there was an "additional" teacher. Miss Fitzsimmons, in the same school. Miss Ackerman at this stage appealed to the Board. The whole case was referred by the Board to the Committee on Teachers and also to the Committee on By-Laws. The former brought in a report sustaining the action of the trustees; the latter recommended that Miss Ackerman's appeal be sustained. These two adverse reports came before the Board yesterday. Mr. Wetmore, of the Committee on Teachers, thought that the Committee on By-Laws was not called on to report any action on the matter, but simply to find out facts. Mr. West thought that the Committee on By-Laws was not called on the Dy-Laws was competent to bring in such a report as was called for by the facts.

Messrs, Flynn, Schiff, Kelly, Patterson, Crawford, Coudert and President Walker participated in the discussion, which became very warm. Mr. Patterson said that the action of the trustees was not only unjust to Miss Ackerman but to all the other teachers, who, by the appointment of Miss Fitzsimmons, were degraded in rank and pay. Their appeal ought, therefore, to be listened to by the Board. It was entirely unjust that a vacancy should be made for an "additional" teacher, thereby displacing a capable regular teacher and degrading eight others. Mr. Flynn upheld the action of the ward trustees, and maintained that Miss Ackerman was properly dismissed. Mr. Coudert spoke in favor of Miss Ackerman degrading eight others. retained and asked the Board not to be influenced by a pretty girl.

At last a vote was taken on Miss Ackerman's ease, and, being a tie, was declared lost. The appeal of the other teachers, also, was not sustained, the vote being a tie. An effort was then made to reinstate Miss Ackerman by a general resolution authorizing the trustees to employ four additional teachers instead of three, who are now employed. After an exhibition of had temper and bad grammar the resolution was laid on the table, and the Board adjourned in a bal humor. It is stated that the real question underlying this controversy is one of religion, Miss Ackerman being a Protestant, while Miss Fitzsimmons is a Roman Catholic.

THE CITY'S CLEAN STREETS.

Mayor Grace has addressed to the Cirizens' Committee of Twenty-one on Street Cleaning a committee of Twenty-one on Street Cleaning a communication asking its opinion as to the condition of the streets. He reminds the committee that while he was endeavoring in the spring of 1881, to enforce the law relative to the cleaning of the streets and removing the deiniquent police commissioners, the committee, as the representatives of the people, prepared and secured the passage of a street cleaning hill, the provisions of which it became the duty of the Mayor to carry out. From time to time since the organization of the new Street-Cleaning Department the Mayor reminds the committee that he has taken the liberty of asking it to aid him in examining into minds the committee that he has taken the liberty of asking it to aid him in examining into the condition of the streets and the efficiency of the Street-Cleaning Department, and always with the happiest results. The Mayor regards it as most essential to the sanitary condition of the city that the streets should be thoroughly clean, particularly during the protracted heated term. As the representative of the citizens in this matter, he requests the committee to give the streets of the city a thorough examination and certify to him any respect in which it may find the Street-Cleaning Department delinquent and the streets not cleaned in conformity with the law.

The Mayor believes from personal observation and the testimony of others that the thorough area of the city are in better condition than ever before at this season of the year.

THE CUSTOMARY ANNUAL DEFICIENCY.

Eleven firemen and two assistant engineers employed in the Post Office left their work yesterday morning in consequence of the notice received by Postmaster Pearson from Secretary Folger that the appropriation for the care of the public buildings was exhausted. The employee sent word to the Postmaster that if he would guarantee the payment of their salaries they would remain, but as such action is forbidden by law Mr. Pearson was compelled to refuse the request. In consequence of the absence of the firemen the public elevators were stopped and the electric light was cut off. Two men who are employed on the elevators were also deprived of employment. The steam for heating the building was shut off and the rooms will be unheated for the present. Some of the employes have not been paid for work done last year when the appropriation by Congress was exhausted. One of the employes whose pay was stopped last year was driven to such desperate straits for want of the necessary money to support his family that he committed suicide. Daniel Fitzgerald testified to seeing Keogh strike Murphy in the face with the heel of his snoe. He saw the men sculling, but when Murphy eried out that he was stabbed the witness walked away. Keogh was a disagreeable fellow, and had had trouble with every one of the sailors on the way over. Other witnesses testified to Keogh's bad reputation on shipboard, and to threats made by him against the boatswain. The prisoner, Murphy, also made a statement. He gave the particulars of the occurrence as they have already been told. A CHINAMAN'S ASSAILANT PUNISHED.
George Flanagan was placed on trial yesterday in the Court of General Sessiens for robbing a Chinaman. While the case was in progress the prisoner offered a plea of assault which was accepted by the District-Attorney. In passing sentence Recorder Smyth said: "I am satished that you are what is known as a 'rough.' Men of your character must learn that Chinamen are entitled to the same rights as other people. I find that as a rule they are of a quiet and orderly character and are not inclined to be quarrelsome. But the 'roughs' of this and other cities make it a business to molest them without cause. It is fitting that you should be made an example of, and I will sentence you to the Penitentiary for one year and to pay a fine of $100." This is the full penalty for a sample assault.

THE MAYOR'S NOMINEES.

THE MAYOR'S NOMINEES.

One reason why the Mayor did not send in any nominations to the Aldermen on Tuesday is that Park Commissioner Lane holds that his term of office does not expire until January 1, 1883. He was appointed to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of William A. Martin, and holds that he was appointed for a full term. Mayor Grace has asked the opinion of the Corporation Counsel on this subject, and will receive it in a day or two. The Mayor will send to the Aldermen on Tuesday next nominations for Police and Park Commissioners, but the nominees are not positively decided upon.

The recount changes the majority of Breman (Rep.) from 21 to a majority of 18 for Davis (Dem.) Breman does not intend to vacate the office, however, before the Courts have passed upon the matter, because the changes in the votes as originally talled all appear in precincts where the majority of the election officers were Democrats, and it is suspected and alleged that the ballot boxes we e tampered with after the ballots had been counted on election night. In the contest between Levi Coykendail and William H. Whelan for the Commissionership of Public Works the majority for Mr. Whelan (Dem.) has not been altered.
